Explanation Made of Thanksgiving Layout

The above Thanksgiving "lay-out" is from plates which were used in printing over 50,000 Thanksgiving leaflets which have been distributed to the Presbyterian churches of the North Carolina Synod. The leaflet was printed on orange and fawn colored paper and was so folded that the vertical words "Thanksgiving Offering" stood out on the fawn-colored side of the folder in contrast to the orange. The job was done in the local printing establishment, this being made possible through new equipment given by a friend.

Over 35,000 of these leaflets were available for distribution to the churches on Sunday, November 17th. The names of the chairman of local committees, and in some cases the entire personnel of the committee, had been received by the general Synod chairman, Mr. J. Archie Cannon, of Concord, and thus the authorities knew to whom these should be sent.

It is a tribute to the Presbytery chairmen that the majority of the committees had been named by that date, some of them making personal visits through their territories to line up these local committees. Every committeeman has been written by Mr. J. Archie Cannon, who has also sent a letter to all of the pastors in the North Carolina Synod.

Orphanage Work Secretary Says:

Dear Friends,

Were you not happy to see on the front page of last month's Messenger those big headlines? The Synodical has raised $10,000 for a first unit of the quadrangle to replace Alexander Building!

At Wilmington, it was my joy and privilege to tell the members

"I give and bequeath to the REGENTS OF THE ORPHANS' HOME OF THE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA, Incorporated Under the laws of the state of North Carolina, (HERE NAME THE BEQUEST.)

THANGSGIVING OF 1940

"Dear God, we are so thankful that we ain't having no war over here."

That was a prayer which a little tot was heard to utter recently when sentence prayers were offered in Sunday School at Barium Springs. There hasn't been a supplication offered to our Heavenly Father with more earnestness and sincerity than this tiny child who, in his ungrammatical way, was offering a prayer of thanksgiving that America was not at war.

That prayer, when we first heard of it, seared itself into our minds and hearts and we could not help but believe that hundreds of thousands of Americans are also giving voice to their personal thankfulness that we are not engaged in the conflicts which already have snuffed out so many of the young manhood of the European countries and the Far Eastern areas.

Our further thinking about that earnest prayer of this little one has also led to the belief that the thankfulness so rampant in the hearts of people today is going to receive concrete and definite expression in the approaching Thanksgiving season when offerings are made for Orphans' Home - not merely in the state of North Carolina but throughout America. We are convinced, too, that if the people give absolute expression to their intense thankfulness that the Thanksgiving Offerings for every Orphan's Home will be unparalleled in history.

In our Home at Barium Springs today are children here as the indirect result of World War No. 1, and there have also been others to pass through the portals of this Home because of the human devastation in 1917 and 1918. As we think of this and as we reflect upon our thankfulness that the United States is not at war today, there should also be earnest prayers that this will continue, that world peace may be realized and that God, in His Infinite wisdom and in His own unsurpassable way, may put it into the hearts of men to live peaceably upon this earth.

How thankful are you that you live in America and that you live in North Carolina? Will it be mere lip thankfulness or will this gratefulness be displayed in unmistakable manner by generous gifts in the Thanksgiving season to help children whose very existence in the Home at Barium Springs is dependent upon liberal remembrances during the latter part of this month?

The Presbyterians of North Carolina have manifested a great and marked interest in the welfare of the children at Barium Springs. They have been doing this for almost half a century during the years that the Home has been maintained here. Thanksgiving seasons have arrived and while sometimes the response has been exceptionally low in comparison with other years, the total received has been limited only by the resources of the donors and not because of a lack of willingness to help.

There's much for which to be thankful in the current Thanksgiving season. That's applicable to the friends of Barium Springs out yonder and it is applicable to the family here. There's an overwhelming sense of gratefulness in the hearts of children and officials at Barium Springs for what has been done in bygone years, and there pervades a feeling here that this thankfulness shall continue without abatement in the impending season of 1940.

Go down on your knees in a prayer of thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father. Go down into your pocketbooks to express this thankfulness in a manner befitting the feelings in your hearts.

It's a glorious season immediately ahead - a glorious opportunity for Presbyterian friends to continue the wonderfulness of their Thanksgiving responses to Barium Springs and the possibility of a glorious feeling of rejoicing that would inevitably result here from liberal donations and a Thanksgiving Offering that ranks high in the annals of all such seasons when invaluable assistance has been rendered this Home.

Just remember that one-half of the contributed income at Barium Springs comes during the Thanksgiving season and that if YOU and YOU and YOU give positive vent to your feelings of thankfulness that this one-half, and more, will be sent to this Home in the Thanksgiving season of 1940

News From Some of the Cottages at Barium Springs

WOMAN'S BUILDING.
First Floor.

This has been a busy month. We had Home-Coming with lots of old boys and girls coming bock to watch us beat Albemarle in a down-pour of rain. We always like to see all of the alumni come back. In fact, we like to see anyone come and we have had lots of visitors this month. We hope we have even more next month.

Football is nearly over and we can truly say we have had a good season. To show the boys we are proud of them, the Home Ec. Department is going to fatten them up with a supper which we are going to cook all by ourselves. (If they can eat it!)

Speaking of Home Ec. Department we fashioned the dresses we made and were they lovely! The following girls took part in the fashion revue: Ruth Cole (first prize), Geraldine Blue (second), Glenn Linsday (third), and the others, Lillie McDonald, Louise Martin, Emma Eudy, Margaret Jarvis, Sara Parcell, Mary Ann McCormick, and yours truly, Flora Newnam.

Everyone has enjoyed having Mr. Cook's father preach for us while he is visiting here.

Basketball pratice has started and we hope to have a good team this year, although we lost several of our best players last year.

All the black hands around here are the result of pecan stain. No one can wait for the hulls to pop off. They pull them off.

That is the news and now for the gossip:

"Blondie" Martin sure does like "Suther's" butter or maybe it is the one who brings it. We wouldn't know which.

Daisy Cayton is seen daily reading "Random Shots from Fort Jackson". We wonder why.

Mary Ann McCormick has been seen gazing at "Moon" Sigmon. Oh! I mean the clouds.

What girl gets more mail from Fort Jackson than anyone else? Could it be your reporter, Flora Newnam? Could be!

Mary Johnson has been seen reading letters from Hawaii. Nice boys, those sailors, How are you getting along, "Cut"?

Captains don't interest Ruth Cole any more. We wonder who does. As soon as we get this information we will pass it on to you. We withhold nothing from the press.

The eyes of the press saw Lillie McDonald walking down the sidewalk Sunday night with none other than Paul McKenzie and we thought he was bashful.

Mary Adams used to be a man-hater. A certain blonde has changed that.

Sara Parcell goes to all the Davidson football games. She never did like football, but she likes a certain freshman there.

Glamour Boy Ernest Stricklin has changed his heart beat three times recently from Lillian Sanders to Dorothy Gibbs to Evelyn Coppedge. Your reporter bids next.

Myrtle Mills is rapidly becoming a second Sonja Heine. She practices skating every Saturday with Billy McCall.

The secret affair of Margie and Wallace is now common gossip.

Virginia Cranfill can be seen waiting at the station - not for Mr. Thomas but for a letter from Erskine College.

May Shoaf said she didn't care who was president of the United States as long as her Henry Pittman was president of the senior class.

One of our cheerleaders, "Fat-Girl" Farmer, is seen at every Davidson football game - is she interested in the game or a certain blonde?

The bathtub soprano, Jerry Blue, is slowly but surely becoming a great singer. (If she can stand it, we can!)

Everyone is interested in the Co-Captain of the basketball team, but Flora Smith has a head start. So give up, girls.

—"Flossie Mae" Newnam.
—"Tractor Ann" McCormick.

JENNIE GILMER.

We have had an exciting month with football in full swing. we have won most of our games.

On Home-Coming we had a birdhouse contest. The winner was Charles Smith. The bird house that Jack McCall built didn't win a prize but it was near the top.

We have had lots of visitors this month. They are always welcome and we hope they will come oftener.

At the football game last Friday it was so cold the spectators nearly froze but the boys on the field were hot stuff. They made pictures of the game and "Pearly Gates" Hooten wishes he had played so he could be in the movies. He really is a hero, fast as lightning and would shine standing between Gable and Taylor. If you don't believe it, ask him.

"Goon" Lindsey has changed his heart-throb, but he and Gwyn Fletcher are still prominent members of the Statesville society. The Statesville girls don't seem to realize that "Pig" Starling is an eligible bachelor.

"Black-Out" Stricklin is a regular heart-breaker. We wonder how he does it.

Jap Smith and "Shadow" McKenzie are regular visitors to the Kennedy home. Do they go to see Mr. Kennedy or is it his daughters?

"Captain" Roach is like a sailor. He has a girl in every cottage. But Mott Price is giving him some hot competition for the one at the Infirmary. So watch out, Roach!

Wallace Twombly has been seen with Margie Lail. He used to be such a shy boy.

Billy McCall is a real ladies' man. He has two on his hands now. They are Myrtle Mills and Virginia Cranfill. He skates with Myrtle and makes eyes at "Ginny".

"Homer" Reid can be heard at all hours of the night serenading Lucille Smith on his guitar. (He's a Killer-Diller.)

Jack Weeks goes to the Infirmary every night - not because he's sick, but that is the home of Martha Price.

"General" Brock is attracting very much attention with "his" station wagon. Boy, he's got one certain girl almost running herself to death after him. Whatta race!

Grover Ingram surely does like blondes. First it was Jean Fletcher and now he has his eye on Marie Morgan. Will he get her? Tune in next month and see.

Jimmy "Romeo" Dorton is a regular visitor to the Women's Building. He can be seen down there everyday of the week and twice on Sundays. (Pardon us, Dorton; we will give you the benefit of the doubt on the Sundays when Walter is here. You must be wearing a "bullet" proof vest!

Joe Ben Gibbs is a football hero; at least, Mable Shoaf seems to think so.

Paul Horne likes his work on the farm. He used to drive the truck. Only reason he hated to change was because when he took the girls to the show he could sit by Lucy Johnson all the way there and back. Too bad, Paul.

Lots of people don't know that David Burney is a heart-breaker. He doesn't say many sweet things to the Barium girls, because he writes them all to a certain girl with big brown eyes. (We don't know it but we are really about a month behind time.)

Woot Davis was seen with one of the "Captain's" many girls at the Hallowe'en party. He used to be a bashful boy before he met Ruth Cole.

No matter how many touchdowns Henry Pittman gets, he says one girl is enough for him and she is none other than the cheer-leader, May Shoaf.

Joe Long and "Pumpkin" Wilson are uh-huh about each other.

Everyone has noticed that George Lewis goes to Davidson's football games with his girl every Saturday, because when George is away, Sally will play.

This is your reporter. He see's all, knows all and tells all.

ANNIE LOUISE

This is station A. L. C. bringing you the leading news of Barium.

Our Home-Coming Day was a great success although the weather-man gave us his worst weather, but it really wouldn't seem like Home-Coming unless it rains. On this day our boys played a grand football game with Albemarle. The score was 19 to 0 in our favor. At the half, some of our girls and boys played in a rhythm band and others sang and gave yells for both teams.

Thanksgiving is almost here and we all have so many things to be thankful for. We would have to pray more than one prayer each day to thank God for all He has given us. And then everything would not be in the list.

We hate to see the frost come because we can hardly think of Miss Lackey's beautiful flowers dying. She has given us so many that they seem almost a part of our big family. The word beautiful could not come near describing her chrysanthemums.

At this time we would like to thank our friends from Greensboro and Hickory for the candy which they brought to everyone here at the home. Wonder what we would do without so many nice friends! I know anyone could not have better friends than we have at Barium.

Our time is up. Hope you have enjoyed this reading brought to you for your enjoyment.

WOMAN'S BUILDING.
Second Floor.

Well, here we are again bringing you October's news through the second floor's most faithful reporters.

As usual, Mary Parks "Spooks" Allen went about on one of her many raids Hallowe'en, but everybody recognized her because she's been wearing the same face for so long.

We wonder why it is that "Bonk-Bonk" McMasters, "T-Bone" Jarvis and Doris Royal say their hearts don't belong to Daddy anymore. Could it be three boys in Charlotte. But Gondie still has faith in Doris.

"Skeeter" Sanders has been having the "Freight Train Blues" lately because her faithful standby has let her down for Dorothy Gibbs.

It certainly seems queer that Jeanette Cobb has dropped the Davidson football games since she listened to the Duke games. What's there that's not here "Shandora"?

Wonder why a certain little blonde, "Marie" is so interested in what goes on in the Junior Class at Appalachian College this year. Couldn't be anyone you know there, could it "Tilda"?

Elizabeth Robards has been seen wearing the football field around. But all of the heroes seem to have deserted it.

Why is it Evelyn Coppedge always wants to play "Jeep don't eat"; May Lynn Jones wants to sing "Sailing" in the classroom everyday; Jackie Newnam's heart about jumps out every time she sees a black '40 Ford with white side-wall tires; Leona Hall sings "What's the matter with me" day after day; "Hotstuff" Everett grits her teeth every night in her sleep and when she gets up it's always Nelson Eddy she's dreamed of; "Red" Stevens eats brown bread and greens all the time. (somebody must have told her they would make her pretty); "Binkie" Baldwin is so downhearted about having to go to the laundry from the kitchen; Betty Adams wants "Wilkie" for president and just why does everyone tell Joyce Weeks she looks like Margie's double? Why does Margaret Royal wear a 'kerchief to school now when it rains. She didn't do that until she met Willie. Why does Miss Burgess take her week-ends off climbing mountains? She must be trying to reduce.

Well, that's all the news from the highlights of the Woman's Building. For further notice, borrow somebody else's paper.

—Betty Adams.
—Marie Morgan.

RUMPLE HALL

It has been a long time since you last heard from us. Since that time we have had a lot of good times which we would like to tell you about.

Saturday before last Miss Reid, our matron, took us all on a picnic to her home. When we got there it was about 3:30 or 4:00 o'clock. Soon Miss Reid's two sisters, Sara and Mary, and Miss Reid took us on a nice walk which we all enjoyed very much. When we got back we all rested and read magazines and books that Mrs. Reid let us have. Then later we ate our supper. When we got ready to leave Mrs. Reid and the rest gave us about 150 magazines, which we all appreciate.

On this past Thursday we all got a thrill out of getting our new shoes.

Since the last time we wrote we have been to see a show which we all enjoyed very much, and would like to thank Mr. Johnston for taking us. The name of the show was "So You Won't Talk".

We have organized a sewing club over here at Rumple Hall

She wrote an interesting letter in which she was voicing her personal appreciation of what Barium Springs had meant to her. There were others here besides the above, but they did not register. Not all of these registered, but some of the names of those on hand have been added from memory.

Another Rainy Day Marked Home-Coming

If the farmers of Iredell county need rain, all they have to do is to induce officials at Barium Springs to schedule a home-coming celebration and rain will invariably pour down. At least, that's the consensus of opinion of alumni of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home who have returned to their home at Barium Springs in downpours for the past three years. November 1st was home-coming day here and rain descended as usual, made inroads into the attendance and marred, to some extend, the delightfulness of this annual affair.

Despite the disagreeableness of the weather there are always some alumni whom you can't keep away from Barium Springs and these were joined by others yesterday to make up a fairly good attendance under the circumstances. Those alumni who registered represented 19 different classes, and if all had put their names on the dotted line, the classes with representatives here would have been even larger.

At a formal session of those here for the noon-day luncheon it was decided to have two home-comings in 1941, which marks the half-century of usefulness of this home since its establishment at Barium Springs. The date of August 28 was definitely set for this mid-summer conclave and the thought behind the summer home-coming was that many graduates and one-time residents could plan vacations to coincide with the date. The fall date, which is always featured by a football game, will be set later.

Enthusiasm was manifested by the alumni over the offer of Camp Fellowship for a week, beginning next August 25, for those who wanted to spend a week's vacation in these environs. The offer was made by Jos. B. Johnston, superintendent of the home, who appeared before the body to welcome them and discuss informal affairs with them. The secretary of the association will have the responsibility of contacting the alumni and explaining the proposed plan.

The luncheon on home-coming, at which more than 75 were present, was made up of home-raised products at Barium and was typical of things which the alumni had eaten as residents. It consisted of sausage and grits, candied sweet potatoes, string beans, tomatoes, home-grown celery, milk, an apple for each one and accessories.

Charley C. Carriker of Winston-Salem, presided at the meeting immediately after lunch, which was limited in discussion because of the desire of returning alumni to visit the various cottages which were decorated for the visitors. The prize went to Howard Cottage for the most unique decorations. Winners of the bird house contest among the boys were announced at lunch by Miss Anne Fayssoux Johnston and prizes awarded. More than a dozen birdhouses were on exhibition in the lobby of Rumple Hall.

Officers of the association were selected for the two years in 1940, so Mr. Carriker will continue for another year along with Lafayette Donaldson, vice-president, of Statesville, and Miss Lucille Burney, of Barium Springs, as secretary.

D. E. Hipp, of Charlotte, again had the distinction of being the oldest old-timer at Barium, being a resident of the home when is was established in 1891. Bruce Parcell, now in Uucle Sam's air corp, registered from Hamilton Field, in California, and there was a carload of alumni returning from the national capitol. The majority of the others were from North Carolina.

Incidentally, the home-comers saw Barium's gridsters conquer Albemarle, 19 to 0, which seemed to offset the uncomfortableness of the weather and fittingly climaxed another rainy home-coming here.

Memorial Rooms

Another $100.00 check has been received at Barium Springs as a memorial gift to furnish a bedroom in the new cottages which are to be constructed here; notice has been received that a $200.00 gift will be made to furnish a living room as a memorial, and information has arrived that still another $100.00 sum has been forwarded as a memorial to Synodical's Treasurer to furnish another bedroom.

In the first instance, a friend has given that sum in honor of her husband who died in 1934, and in the case of the $200.00 gift, a mother is giving this in honor of her son. Detailed information is not available on the other memorial gift mentioned in this article today, though that will be received when the money is forwarded to the treasurer of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home.

This now makes a total of eight bedrooms and one living room which will be provided. Three $100.00 sums are in the hands of Ernest Milton, the $200.00 sum will be sent to him, and the other $500.00 is in the hands of Mrs. Coit Robinson, Synodical's Treasurer. It will be recalled that the October Messenger told of a $400.00 legacy which would be used to furnish four bedrooms. This is included in the $500 amount.

Most of these gifts have been inspired by what has been read of such donations in The Barium Messenger. It is felt here that all of the bedrooms and living rooms of the four cottages will be provided for in this manner as other friends will want to make tributes of love in honor of those whose earthly careers have been ended.

A couple of unusually interesting and illuminating letters have recently been received from Grover Miles, who is now known as Jack Miles. He has wandered over almost all of America, but has settled down within the past couple of years and is connected with the Jefferson Hotel at Miami Beach, Fla. He wanted to know about all of the boys with whom he was associated at Barium. A letter from some of his friends would be appreciated by him, and you'd get an interesting letter in reply. Jack (known to you as Grover) was high in his praise of the fundamentals he had received in his years at Barium Sprirngs.

A report comes to us that one of the Craig girls - Alice - lives in London, England and was barely missed by one of the numerous bombs which have been falling on that city. She is now Mrs. W. Mclaren, but her London address is not known. Her sister is Mrs. A. F. M. Mclaren (sisters married brothers) and lives at 51-01 39th Ave., Apt. F-53, Long Island City, N. Y.

Death Occurs to Two Former Workers Here

Friends at Barium Springs were saddened in October to hear of the deaths of two former employees of the Home here, and similar sadness will envelop the hearts of many alumni when they learn of the deaths of Miss Fannie Foust in Graham on October 15th and Miss Mary Lea in Greensboro on October 21st.

Miss Foust was a fourth grade teacher at Barium Springs for almost two decades and after her retirement as a teacher she was in charge of the library for a couple of years. When she left the Home she went to live in Graham. She had been in ill health for the past year. Miss Lea was here for over a decade, acting as clothing secretary, as distributor of supplies for the various cottages and as a receptionist when visitors came to see the Home. No one had heard of her illness and the information of her death came through friends who visited the Home from Greensboro the latter part of October.

It is rather interesting that seven graduates of Barium Springs, who now live in the neighborhood of Graham and nearby cities, were pallbearers at Miss Foust's funeral. All of these boys had been taught by Miss Foust. The pallbearers were James Elliott, John Elliott, Robert Blue, Tom Clark, Joe Keenan, Troy Henry and Reid Brown.

ORPHANAGE SECRETARY

of Synodical in session there that our goal had been reached and that gifts amounting to $12,076.92 had been received.

Each Presbyterial contributed generously, and we are most grateful for this expression of love, put into gifts. You know that all money over and above building cost is for the furnishing and equipping of our unit. Now, we look forward to the actual building.

And of course you are, this month, thinking in terms of Thanksgiving for Barium Springs. Every Auxiliary has been sent program material. Questions that might be asked are all answered in a very comprehensive way in the booklet—"Discussion of Departments at Presbyterian Orphanage, Barium Springs," by Mr. Jos. B. Johnston. This makes the basis for a most interesting program for November Auxiliary or Circle meetings. May I suggest that each person who has this booklet shall keep it for future reference. The material is permanently vaulable.

Envelopes for Thanksgiving have been sent, also, to every Auxiliary. Will you not make an offering proportionate to your real spirit of gratitude? For all good things, are for life and peace and love and worship, for God's limitless blessings poured out on us as on no other nation in this troubled world.

So will we also bring greater cause for Thanksgiving to our Barium Springs Orphanage family.

Faithfully yours,
(Mrs. C. E.) Margaret S. Raynal

Fashion Revue

From the Statesville Daily, of November 13th.

At an informal reception Tuesday in the Lottie Walker living room at Barium Springs Orphanage, Miss Doloris Hunsucker presented her second-year home economics students in a fall fashion revue.

Among the sports dresses, plaids were much in evidence. Excellent taste in design and color was exhibited by every one. Prizes were awarded to the following: First prize. Ruth Cole, who wore an attractive two-piece suit in brown beige, with bawn accessories; second place, Geraldine Blue, who modeled a green and brown plaid semi-sports dress with brown and green accessories; third place, Glenn Linsday, who wore green and black plaid, with black accessories.

The judges, who had difficulty in deciding on the prize winners, were Mrs. Leroy Sossamon, Miss Elizabeth Reid and Miss Irene McDade.

Music was furnished throughout the revue by Miss Laura Gray Greene, of Barium Springs faculty, Miss Mary Adams made appropriate remarks during the revue and Miss Sallie Farmer acted as hostess, assisted by the following tenth grade girls: Margaret Presnell, Lorene Brown, and Mary Parks Allen.

About fifty members of the Barium personnel and the home economics students attended.

A hillbilly watched a man at a tourist camp making use of a comb and brush, a toothbrush, a nail file, and a whisk broom.

"Say, mister," he finally queried, "are you always that much trouble to yourself?"

and are having a big time. Some of us are crocheting and some of us are embroidering. Miss Carpenter and Miss Reid are the heads of it and we enjoy having them because they are of so much help to us.

We all enjoyed the game Home-coming Day, but would have enjoyed it much better if it had been pretty weather.

Before we close we would like to tell you all how much we enjoyed having our "ole' graduates" back with us on Home-coming Day.

BABY COTTAGE

All our whooping cough children are back with us again.

We were very glad to see all the old boys and girls coming back Home-Coming. One of our former "Big Girls," Marie Smith, who is now Mrs. Robert Mills, and her baby, Patricia, spent the week-end with us.

We had a happy Hallowe'en. We had a visit from the witch and the skeleton. The witch scared us a little bit, but the skeleton was short-lived, because the first grade boys, (Jackie Williams, Buddy Maples, Mack Wicker, Dwight Reid and Jerry Ennis) almost pulled him limb from limb, so he got out in a hurry. We had our jack-O-Lantern on the transum of the front door. It added some cheer to the whole program. The evening's fun ended with an apple ducking.

Our Home-Coming, with the usual downpour, was here, but Barium won the game and that's that.

Two of our big girls, Janie Smith and Lorene Brown, got show tickets for good records in algebra.

We have a football game here Friday with Kannapolis and we hope to win.

We observe the last Thursday in November for Thanksgiving and we have two holidays from school, Thursday and Friday.

HOWARD COTTAGE

The Howard girls won in the best decoration for Home-Coming.

We had a nice game up here on Home-Coming. We beat Kannapolis 19 to 0.

Some of the boys made birdhouses. The first prize was five dollars.

Pearl Morgan, Frances Rhyne and Virginia Presnell had visits from their people.

We have had three new children come to Howard.

We had some visitors yesterday.

We are Making new curtains for our cottage.

Miss Brandon's Christian Endeavors went to camp and we enjoyed it very much.

We haven't been having many string beans. We have some string beans today and have not had any in a long time.

Mr. Johnston gave each girl at Howard Cottage a bag of peanuts.

Mr. Thomas has been bringing us lots of apples.
